

Byron Usswald

Strategy & Business Development Manager

Byron holds an MSc in GISc from the University of Salzburg, as well as an Undergraduate Degree in both Geography & Sociology. At FinConecta, Byron is the Strategy & Development Manager, responsible for the Administration component of the Business, as well as working closely alongside the Business Development team & Senior Management to identify new opportunities & strategies for growth. He has a keen interest in Digital transformation and the far reaching changes this brings through Economic & Social Inclusion of societies in underdeveloped regions.

FinConecta

Team
